

Michelle Bryant

Director

Appointed May 1, 2020, current appointment expires May 1, 2021
Committee: HR Committee

Experienced leadership coach, educator and corporate manager with a demonstrated history of successfully bridging gaps between industry and Indigenous communities. Michelle is the Corporate Affairs Manager at Ridley Terminals, where she has worked since 2011. Previous to that she worked as a teacher and Vice Principal for 10 years. Michelle has sat on many Boards, including serving as the first Indigenous woman President of the Prince Rupert and District Chamber of Commerce. Michelle currently is the Vice President of the Women's Leadership Network and an elected Trustee for the Lax Kw'alaams Settlement Trust. Michelle also sits on the following Boards for the Province, the Indigenous Business and Investment Council, and the Medal of Good Citizenship. Michelle received a Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education from Vancouver Island University and a Master of Education in Multidisciplinary Leadership from the University of Northern British Columbia. She also received a Diploma in Solution Focused Coaching, and a Certificate in Advanced Management. Michelle is a member of the Tsimshian Nation from the community of Lax Kw'alaams.