

Thomas Nyce

Director

Appointed May 1, 2018, current appointment expires May 1, 2021.

Committee Membership: Audit Committee.

Thomas Nyce, originally from BC's Pacific Northwest, is Haisla First Nations, and proudly Canadian. Mr. Nyce has a wide range of business experience spanning multiple industries including, retail, communications, health & wellness, and non-profit but his focus has always remained within the construction industry.

Mr. Nyce is a Red Seal Electrician who owned and operated a business throughout BC before attaining a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing & Communication Management from Camosun College.

For the past six years, Mr. Nyce has worked in multiple roles with Ledcor Industries Inc. and most recently developed his own consulting firm, Gilwa Consulting Inc. Based off his traditional roots and construction background, Mr. Nyce assists clients in discovering meaningful Indigenous engagement solutions throughout all levels of the construction life-cycle for medium to large construction projects throughout BC.

Mr. Nyce has built his career on the principles of collaborative partnerships and by creating and maintaining meaningful long-term relationships through positive and productive interactions that strengthen group and individual pursuits.
